Sir,

With reference to Section 219 of the Mysore Jail Manual laying down that an allowance of money for road expenses at the rate of 2 annas for every 15 miles to their homes may be paid to prisoners on their release if they are not in possession of sufficient funds of their own, I have the honor to state that this rate is not sufficient to purchase a third Class railway ticket, which on the S. M. Railway costs 2 pies per mile, and to suggest that the rule may be modified to the effect that when when the journey either in full or in part homewards can be performed by means of Railway, money enough to purchase a third Class ticket may be given". The above rule was framed at the time when there was no Railway running through the province.

I have the honor to be

Sir
